

April 25, 6:30-8:30 p.m.
Monroe Street United Methodist Church, 3613 Monroe Street, Toledo

Loving Your Neighbor in a Global World

These are challenging times for our nation. As people of faith we are called upon to welcome the stranger. Come to hear about the history of sanctuary and immigration policy, and to explore ways the whole faith community can respond to immigrants and refugees. Participating groups include: ABLE, Toledo Sister Cities, Welcome Toledo-Lucas County, MultiFaith Council of NWO, Marcy Kaptur's Office, City of Toledo-Board of Community Relations, and religious communities.

6:30-7 p.m. Gathering time and informational tables

7-7:45 p.m. Panel Insights and Time for Questions

- Fadia Abaza, Community Activist
- Linda Alvarado-Arce, City of Toledo- Board of Community Relations
- Larry Clark, Pastor- Monroe Street United Methodist Church
- Brittany Ford, Welcome Toledo-Lucas County (TLC), Board of Lucas County Commissioners
- Eugenio Mollo, Managing Attorney at ABLE

7:45-8:15 p.m. Discussion and planning

- Small Groups

8:15-8:30 p.m. Feedback and Final Thoughts

Open to all. Come and explore what being a neighbor is all about!